

VNQ Membership Terms and Conditions

- Membership to VNQ is open to all – individuals, Not-For-Profit Organisations, and For-Profit Organisations.
- Application to become a member must be done in writing, using the online form provided.
- All applications are subject to approval by the Management Committee, in accordance with VNQ's Constitution.
- By applying, all applicants are expected to have read and understood VNQ's Constitution.
- Membership is valid for a period of 12 months, from the date of application.
- If a member at 31 July 2021, the individual or organisation will automatically be granted membership for 12 months.
- Individual membership belongs to the individual who applied and is non-transferrable.
- An individual member has one voting right at a VNQ's Annual General Meeting.
- An individual member has one email address on VNQ's distribution list.
- Organisation membership belongs to the organisation and is transferable if the organisation's ownership changes during the period of membership.
- An organisation member has one voting right at a VNQ's Annual General Meeting. The organisation must select an individual to vote on their behalf at AGM's.
- Organisation members can have an unlimited number of their staff's work email addresses on VNQ's distribution list.

August 2021